CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations and well done to our Wakakirri team which represented our school in an exemplary manner at the state competition in Week 4. On the night our school won an award for the most Sustainable Costuming and Sets. One of the themes of Wakakirri is Sustainability. Our costumes were simple and made extensive use of recycled materials. The signature theme was Flies and our team undertook a presentation about the importance of flies in our environment. Thank you to the students for their hard work, to Evie Donoghue and Soma Govender for their tireless work training the team and to Kath Milne and Andrea Hayden who also provided support on the day.

BOOK WEEK

Did you find your treasure?

Week 5 was Book Week and we had many exciting activities for the students to participate in across the week. This year's theme was 'Find Your Treasure' and we have discovered that the word 'treasure' means something different to everyone. On Tuesday teachers and SSOs went into different classes and read a treasured picture book or story from when they were young. Many also read a favourite current picture book. Students enjoyed having a different adult reading to them and hearing stories from long ago.

On Wednesday at lunch time we had pirate activities in the library. Students had an opportunity to discover their pirate name, make a pirate hat, create some treasure, make a parrot and learn to draw a pirate ship. It was wonderful to see the Well Being leaders supporting the running of this fun lunchtime.

On Friday the Year 7s came into classes and shared their favourite books as well as an activity with all students. This work will now be put on display in the library to share with everyone.

During the week we also shared stories and activities with our Buddy Class and contributed to a whole school book which Mrs Galloway collated and presented to Ms Sulchs for the library at the Book Week assembly. This book will become a treasure left behind from the 2018 classes.

The Book Week parade was run by Mrs Gully and students from 4E. Each class had a chance to show their costumes and it was fantastic to see so many people dressed up and to see the effort put into costumes. A big thank you to all the parents and caregivers who attended the event.

STAFFING NEWS

Congratulations to Gizella Webb who has won a permanent JP classroom teaching position in the school from 2019.

We currently have a vacancy being advertised to fill a permanent Groundsperson position. The outcome of that process will probably not be known until late this term.

For the first 5 weeks of Term 4, I will be on long service leave. Andrea Hayden will be Acting Principal during that time. We are currently undertaking a process to fill the Acting Deputy Principal role. Hopefully I will be able to tell you who the successful applicant is in the next Newsletter.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE OSHC TEAM

The OSHC recently participated in an assessment of the service against 7 criteria. Congratulations to Lissy, Sally and the Educators for your great result.

OSHC GARDEN COMMENCEMENT

After 2 years, the garden upgrade for the amphitheatre areas just in front of House 7 has now commenced. The area will be bunted off and the development is planned to take about 2 weeks (weather permitting). I sincerely thank the OSHC for its strong commitment to the school and funding this development.

STUDENT VOICE EXPO

You should receive your invitation to the Student Voice EXPO before the end of the week. I would encourage everyone to attend. There will be a free sausage sizzle (by order only) and I would like to thank Governing Council and Fundraising Committee for your generous support for this.

JOEY'S JOURNAL

Happy Father's Day

Research tells us that children thrive when they belong to a caring and supportive family. The quality of a child's relationship within the family matters much more than factors such as family size, the number of parents, biology, culture, language, or religion.

The relationships they have from birth help children feel secure, to believe they will be kept safe, and to trust in others and in the world - even when problems arise. Families are the biggest influence on a child's mental health and wellbeing.

This Sunday as you celebrate Father's Day, I encourage you to make an investment in your child/children's mental health. Spend the day as a family. Play together, share together, laugh together, and make memories together. Maybe there is something that you could turn into a tradition that you do as a family every year; a special outing, a family soccer game at the park, a family photo...

To all the fathers, father figures, and expectant fathers enjoy your special day!
